GUEST SPEAKERS

International Guest Speaker Professor Gerhard Rogler

Gerhard Rogler (*22.07.1963) received his approbation as physician and M.D. degree from the University of Ulm, Germany in 1992 and his Ph.D. degree after studying philosophy in Ulm and Augsburg, Germany in 1996. Since 2007 he is full professor of Gastroenterology and Hepatology at the University of Zürich. He has built up a center for IBD treatment and research. Gerhard Rogler is head of the Department of Gastroenterology and Hepatology in Zürich since August 2017. He has published more than 600 Pubmed-listed manuscripts including an honorary membership of the South African Society of Gastroenterology (SAGES) in 2013. Gerhard Rogler has been member of the Governing Board of the European Crohn's and Colitis Organization (ECCO) and is a member of the International Organization of IBD Research (IOIBD) and the German Academy of Science (Leopoldina).

International Guest Speaker Professor Geoffrey Dusheiko

Geoffrey Dusheiko, FCP(SA) FRCS, is Emeritus Professor of Medicine at the Royal Free Hospital and University College London School of Medicine and Consultant Hepatologist at Kings College Hospital London, in London, UK. After earning his MBBS degree from the University of Witwatersrand in Johannesburg, South Africa, Professor Dusheiko completed his internship at the Chris Hani Baragwanath Hospital in Johannesburg and his residency at Johannesburg Hospital. His fellowships were conducted at the Johannesburg Hospital Liver Unit and the National Institutes of Health, Maryland, and the University of Minnesota, USA.

Professor Dusheiko's research interests include the management and treatment of HCV and HBV and small hepatocellular carcinoma; he has a special interest in research on viral hepatitis, especially viral genotyping, applied molecular virology, the natural history of chronic viral hepatitis and antiviral therapies. A member of several organisations, including EASL, AASLD and IASL, Professor Dusheiko is also a Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, the Royal College of Physicians of South Africa, and the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh. He is a co-editor of Alimentary Pharmacology and Therapeutics, and has previously served on editorial boards for the Journal of Viral Hepatitis, Hepatology, Best Practice & Research Clinical Gastroenterology, and Gut among others. Professor Dusheiko has authored or co-authored more than 500 articles in international peer-reviewed journals or books.

Guest Speaker Marianne Thamm

Marianne Thamm is a South African journalist, author and stand-up comedian. She is the assistant editor of the Daily Maverick and has written several books. In 2016 she released the memoir, Hitler, Verwoerd, Mandela and me. Thamm was born in England where her German father had been a prisoner of war and met Thamm's mother, a Portuguese domestic worker. Thamm describes herself as a "half-Portuguese, half-German, recovering Roman Catholic atheist lesbian immigrant" She lives in Cape Town with her partner and two daughters.
